

TONI GERTSCH

tg@tonigertsch.ch
www.tonigertsch.ch

Career Goal Challenging tasks and responsibilities in the private or public sector within a dynamic and multicultural environment with career opportunities

Profile More than 15 years of project and change management experience with focus on organisation, restructuring and strategy development

Due to a four year appointment abroad, profound experience in representation of interests, public relations and negotiation within international organisations

Strong social and communicational skills; broad multicultural experience; excellent language skills

CV

Public sector

Management of a reorganisation project with focus on shared services; development of a public private partnership strategy; enhancing the employer's attractiveness by developing a personnel marketing strategy

Diplomatic service

Counsellor to the head of mission in security matters within international organisations; expertise in the fields of cooperation as well as communication and control; management of information events for politicians, media and universities

Private sector

Development of training projects for a leading company in the security sector

Military service

Chief of staff of an infantry brigade with the rank of colonel GS